

The Vermont Phoenix.

TWELVE PAGES

BRATTLEBORO.

The date for the annual Harvest day at the Home for the Aged is Wednesday, Nov. 8.

S. M. Yeaw has bought a cottage house of W. B. Cheney at No. 6 Highland street to occupy for a home.

H. M. Yerrington of South Vermont has traded in his 1916 Maxwell for a Chalmers $1850 with the Vermont Auto Sales Co.

Dr. S. P. Dunn of Wilmington has bought his second Chalmers $1850 touring car through the Vermont Auto Sales Co., taking delivery Monday.

Driver Al Martin of Teconderoga, N. Y., well known in Brattleboro, was fined $50 at Woonsocket, R. I., Oct. 26 for indifferent driving with Red Norton in a race the day previous.

At the meeting of Protective Grange Wednesday the first and second degrees were conferred upon seven candidates. The third and fourth degrees will be worked Nov. 15, followed by the harvest supper.

Two men charged with first offenses of intoxication pleaded guilty Friday morning in the municipal court before Judge Frank E. Barber and each was fined $5 and costs. The costs in one case amounted to $6 and in the other to $6.25.

Captain Rebec of the Salvation Army in Brattleboro reported that the singing of a great religious revival, not only in Brattleboro, but in country churches where he says he sees evidence of a desire for a revival.

The final footings show that the receipts from the Woman's club canvass for funds for the relief of Armenians and Syrians were $528.76. This is considered by all concerned to be a fine showing for Brattleboro.

Miss Della M. Sherman, administrator, has sold the Sidney H. Sherman house at 18 Spruce street to Jerome A. Amidon of 29 Spruce street, who bought for a home. The sale was made through John L. Howard's real estate agency.

The first meeting of the season of the mission study class of the Centre Congregational church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Ryder, Oct. 26. The book chosen for study by the class is The New South, by John M. Moore.

Miss Sophie S. Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Johnston of West Brattleboro, was one of the limited number of guests at the marriage of her friend, Miss Margaret Preston Draper, in Washington, D. C., last week. Miss Draper, daughter of late Gen. William F. Draper, who was ambassador to Italy in President McKinley's administration, became the bride of Prince Andrea Boncompagni di Rome, Cardinal Gibbons officiating.

The Lamovay Camp Fire girls gave a Halloween party in the Armory Friday evening which was largely attended and was a very enjoyable affair. The decorations were in keeping with the season and the dancing was done by the girls only by the jack-o'-lanterns. Leisner's orchestra furnished music and dancing continued until midnight.

A 50-ton gondola car loaded with trap rock jumped the rails just south of the seaport at the south end of the yard Monday morning and blocked the northbound main. The car, with a string of coal cars being switched. The heavily loaded car broke one of the rails in three places and cut off the ends of the ties over which the wheels ran.

An automobile driven by Mrs. Viola Miller of West Brattleboro backed down High street hill Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Miller tried to shift into low speed and bumped into Dr. C. G. Wheeler's car, which stood in front of the Manley garage, headed down the hill. The tops of both cars were dented and both were smashed and other slight damage was done. The force of the collision sent Dr. Wheeler's car ahead about its length. Mrs. Miller was in an accident recently near the Mosher garage.

A Gosselin, proprietor of the dry cleaning establishment on High street, has bought a lot near the fair grounds and is building there a cement block building in which the cleaning of garments will be done. The building will be fire proof and machinery in addition to the equipment now installed in the High street quarters will be put in. The High street place will be retained, but such cleaning as makes the work a fire hazard will be done in the new quarters.

Mrs. J. B. Bolinger was severely burned in her home on Green street Saturday. She was preparing to mop the floor and had a kettle of boiling water in her hands when she had a heart attack and fell to the floor. The water came in contact with her face and chest and arm. Her son, Edward, found her and as she was regaining consciousness and assisted in getting her clothing away from the heated port. Dr. Grace W. Burnett was called to dress the burns. While Mrs. Bolinger is in much pain, it was found that the burns were not deep, but some scars probably will remain.

Work is well under way on an immense modern cattle barn on the Scott farm, owned by Frederick Holbrook and managed by E. C. Tenney. This barn when completed will be 200 feet long, 36 feet wide with stanchions for 100 cows, 50 on each side. There will be three big silos, 20 by 30 feet each, two of which have been completed. The barn will be of wood with concrete floor, plastered walls and with cork brick for the cows to stand on. The foundation of concrete is about completed and workmen are pushing the woodwork along as rapidly as possible.

About 60 of the pupils and friends of the school in district No. 6 gathered at the schoolhouse Saturday evening for a box social and Halloween frolic, at the invitation of the teacher, Miss Mabel Provin of Westfield, Mass. The schoolroom was very prettily decorated and arranged for Halloween sports. A fortune teller, a spelling match and numerous games and tricks were enjoyed. The auction sale of lunch boxes was highly satisfactory, bringing in a sum sufficient to purchase a musical instrument for the school. In addition to the boxes, refreshments of apples, peanuts, chestnuts, doughnuts, cheese, lemonade, cider and candy were served.

K. E. Mosher has sold to George L. Dunham for Miss Evelyn Dunham a Buick roadster.

The women of the Baptist church will have their annual chicken-pie supper and Christmas sale Thursday, Nov. 16.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Enterprise society has been postponed one week. The next meeting will be held November 8 with Mrs. C. F. Sargent, 8 Cherry street.

Miss Margaret and Kenneth Morse entertained 10 young friends at their home on South Main street Monday night at a Halloween party. Supper was served and Halloween games and stunts were enjoyed.

Miss Lottie Bingham gave a delightful party Tuesday evening at her home on Pleasant street, at which 38 of her friends were present. The evening was spent with games and music. Refreshments were served.

Men chopping trees on the Bradley farm Monday afternoon put the Dunbar power line of the Twin State Gas & Electric Co. out of commission and Newfane service was interrupted until 6 o'clock.

Miss Eleanor Manley entertained six of her friends at a Halloween party Tuesday night. Games and stunts appropriate to the day were played. The rooms were prettily decorated with a large number of black cats, witches and jack-o'-lanterns.

An entry was made Monday afternoon in the municipal court of a suit to recover $30 alleged to be due W. F. Richardson Co. from F. E. Cutler. The Holden & Martin Lumber Co. is trustee in the suit. Gibson & Daley are attorneys for the plaintiff.

The French steamer, Lafayette, on which Miss Amy Bradley of Brattleboro recently sailed for France, has arrived safely at Bordeaux. Miss Bradley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richards Bradley and has gone to drive a motorcar in the service of the French wounded.

The regular meeting of W. C. T. U. for November will be held in the first room next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. A. J. Currier, the delegate to the recent W. C. T. U. state convention, will give her report and everyone is invited who is interested to hear this report.

About 60 friends of Miss Bessie Ryder were present at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Fisher, Monday evening for a social occasion being the elder's 20th birthday anniversary. She was presented several gifts and two birthday cakes. Refreshments were served after which dancing was enjoyed.

A committee from the special council of Congregational churches will come to Brattleboro today for a conference with delegates from the Congregational churches of Windham county. The tercentenary program will be the matter under consideration. Two sessions, morning and afternoon, will be held in the Centre church house.

Harold H. Belliveau, 8 son of George Belliveau, died Tuesday of heart trouble at his home at 8 Church street. The boy was born in North Adams, Mass. His mother died three years ago. The funeral was held Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock at St. Michael's Roman Catholic church and the burial took place in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

The Christian Endeavor of the Baptist church held a Halloween social in the chapel Tuesday night with about 65 present. Several appeared in costume. Halloween refreshments were served and the evening was spent with playing games and doing Halloween stunts. Also fortune telling was an interesting part of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Carrie L. Hamilton, district deputy grand matron, and Fred A. Davis of Chester, district deputy grand patron, visited Pearl chapter, No. 52 of Jacksonville Wednesday evening and visited Mayflower chapter, No. 19 at Wilmington last evening. They were accompanied to Jacksonville by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Haynes and Mrs. Austin E. Miller.

The Goodwill club gave Mrs. John J. Austin, one of its members, a surprise Wednesday in honor of her birthday anniversary. The members met in the home of Mrs. John Gunn and upon their arrival found Mrs. Austin about ready to retire. The guests were all dressed in fancy costumes, which added much merriment to the affair. They presented Mrs. Austin a casserole with their best wishes for many more anniversaries. Refreshments were served and another pleasant evening added to the club's activities.

The United States Civil Service commission announced competitive examinations in Brattleboro to fill the following vacancies in the federal service: Nov. 25, aid, hygienic laboratory, $720 to $840; Nov. 28, sawyer and carpenter, Indian service, $840; mechanical draftsman, war department, $1,000 to $1,200; examiner of accounts, interstate commerce commission—grade 1, $2,220 to $3,000; grade 2, $1,800 to $2,100; experimental engineer, bureau of engraving and printing, $3,000. Detailed particulars may be secured from the local secretary at the postoffice.

Dr. Charles S. Pratt, who recently sold his practice to Dr. Ernest L. Tracy, was tendered a farewell reception in the hotel in Bernardston, Mass. Monday night by some of the Brattleboro physicians. A company of eight physicians and surgeons enjoyed the first class banquet, at the close of which Dr. Pratt made some particularly interesting remarks, noting the change in methods of practice since he entered upon the work of the profession 37 years ago. He also made some suggestions to the others in the party.

The Brattleboro women who have been working Monday afternoons at Mrs. N. L. Healey's for the American Fund for French Wounded sent boxes to headquarters this week containing among other things 112 soldier's kits or comfort bags. Each bag contains six articles, some for practical use and some for amusement. Bags of this kind are to be distributed at Christmas time in the hospitals. Besides the bags were comfort pillows of all sizes which were used especially by the ambulance men in making the wounded more comfortable while they are being carried to the hospitals. The boxes also contained surgical dressings of different kinds, flannel shirts, knitted sweaters, mufflers, socks, etc. There will be no work done at Mrs. Hawley's until Nov. 13.

W. D. Cushman gave a connoisseur Monday evening to a party of friends at the Colonial.

M. J. Sherry has bought a 1916 Maxwell touring car from the Vermont Auto Sales Co.

Sixty marriage licenses were issued at the town clerk's office during October, of which 49 were issued to others than residents of Brattleboro.

The social committee of the Woman's guild of St. Michael's Episcopal church is planning to serve a genuine New England "Saturday night" supper Nov. 11 in the banquet room of Odd Fellows' temple.

Miss Ruth W. Childs and Dr. George R. Anderson went to New York city this week on account of the illness of Miss Child's mother, Mrs. F. W. Childs. The latter is now much improved and expects to return home Monday.

A civil suit of John L. Howard of Brattleboro against I. S. Sayre of Townshend, to recover a commission alleged to be due for the sale of property, has been set for trial Nov. 10.

The following were drawn as a jury Saturday to try the case of the French and Emory Evans of Guilford, John T. Wright, A. A. Martindale and Benjamin Streeter of Vernon, W. W. Barnett of West Dunbar, J. E. Rogers, E. L. Parker, E. M. Angier, Charles A. Ames and J. E. Melles of Brattleboro. Chase & Chase are attorneys for the plaintiff and W. R. Daley represents Mr. Sayre.

Miss Marion Holmes of Boston will speak in the Unitarian parish church this Friday, evening, at 8 o'clock on her experiences in France with the American Ambulance. Miss Holmes, who is a sister of Rev. John Haynes Holmes of New York city, spent 10 months in caring for the French wounded, and the facts related by her are not only of absorbing interest in themselves, but are described graphically. The lecture is open to the public. At its close a collection will be taken for the benefit of the wounded in France.

The first of the equipment of the main office of the Twin State Gas & Electric Co. arrived in Brattleboro yesterday by motor truck from Dover, N. H., and was installed on the first floor at the corner of High street, where the temporary office quarters of the concern will be held until the Holstein-Friesian offices in the American buildings are vacated. Today the office force is engaged in catching up on the work which has gotten behind during the job of packing and moving from the old offices in Dover. It is expected that all of the equipment and the entire force of the company will be installed in Brattleboro before the end of the week.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Miss Pearl McGee and Miss Celia Roberts visited in Keene Sunday.

Miss Clara Richards went Saturday to see the football game at Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Allan D. Brown and daughter, Miss Helen Taylor Brown, returned Tuesday from a five-months' visit in Denver, Col. They started for home four weeks ago, visiting in different places en route. Mrs. E. J. Sutherland of Huntington, Conn., Mrs. Brown's daughter, came Tuesday to spend a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. O'Donoghue and son, Roger, have moved to Springfield, Mass., where they will make their home. Mr. O'Donoghue is employed in East Springfield in an ammunition factory and Roger has a position as geographer for the National Supply Co. in Brightonwood. Mrs. O'Donoghue was in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Bonnett of Concord (Vt.), department president of the W. R. C. of Vermont, was here Friday afternoon and evening discussing with Department Commander H. C. Streeter of the G. A. R. plans for the state encampment next year. Mrs. Bonnett left Saturday to visit the Bennington W. R. C. She is making a tour of the various corps of the state.

SCHOOL TO GIVE CANTATA.

The Builder of the Ship to Be Presented in Auditorium Next Week—Chorus to Number 150.

High school pupils, assisted by two soloists from the Baptist church choir, will sing the cantata, The Building of the Ship, in the Auditorium Friday evening, Nov. 10, under the direction of Frank M. Cram, supervisor of music in the public schools and organist of the First Baptist church.

The chorus will number 150, all members of the high school, and the soloists will be Miss Harriet E. Arnold, 17, soprano; Mrs. A. L. Maynard, contralto; A. L. Maynard, tenor; and Ernest W. Barre, 18, baritone. Leisner's orchestra will furnish the instrumental music.

This cantata is based on Longfellow's poem of the same name and the entertainment promises to be the most pretentious of any ever undertaken in a musical line by Brattleboro high school pupils. Tickets will be on sale by members of the high school.

GETS $385 FOR FOX.

Arthur Wilson of Brattleboro Bought It for $3.50—Turned Out to Be Silver Grey of Great Value.

Arthur Wilson of the garage firm of Wilson Brothers made an investment this week that puts the deals of ordinary financiers in the shade, although he doesn't take any special credit for the big return in his return. It was Tuesday when Ora Atkins of that place came down off Ludlow mountain with a grey fox which he shot while hunting squirrels. The animal was seen chasing a squirrel and when it approached near enough Mr. Atkins dropped him with a charge of shot in the head.

Mr. Wilson says both he and Mr. Atkins supposed the fox was a woods grey and that he bought it for $3.50. Later he says he came across Guy W. Blood of Grafton, whose father is a furrier, who saw at once that the animal was a prize, being a silver grey, and that Mr. Blood Wednesday bought it of him for $385.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

William Fleming has begun work in Houghton & Simonds's store.

Miss Marjorie White has been ill at her home on High street several days. Miss Maude Glazier of Leverett, Mass., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brackett.

Irving C. Ellis began work as bookkeeper Wednesday for the Brattleboro Trust Co.

Lester C. Moore was called to Dover yesterday on account of the death of his mother.

Miss Addie and Miss Grace Morse spent the week-end with friends in Worcester, Mass.

Miss Marion Knight is having a vacation from her work in Houghton & Simonds's store.

Mrs. Arthur W. Peach of Northfield (Vt.) is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Barrows.

Mrs. D. W. Sullivan and daughter, Elizabeth, of Bellows Falls visited relatives here Wednesday.

Mrs. Grace Richardson of Williamsville is visiting in town with her cousin, Mr. Harold Smith.

Mrs. G. O. Abbott will go Sunday to Springfield (Vt.) to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Ackerman.

Fred Sheehan, manager of the Empire theater, went Tuesday morning to Boston for a few days of business.

C. H. Smith of Minneapolis, who had been visiting in Brattleboro, left Wednesday on his return home.

Mrs. H. O. Coleman of Winhall and Mrs. Adia Coleman of Rawsonville spent Monday in town with friends.

Mrs. John Murdoch of Athol, Mass., who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Pratt, has returned to her home.

Ticket Agent David S. Carey was in Gardner Wednesday to attend the funeral of his wife's father, P. Murray. Herbert Brackett of Readsboro has come to town to spend the winter in the home of his brother, A. J. Brackett.

Dale Bogie has finished work for the American Express company and is working for J. E. Rogers, the plumber.

Capt. and Mrs. E. W. Gibson left yesterday on an automobile trip to Boston. They will be gone several days.

Miss Elvina Mallory, nurse in the Memorial hospital, was called to Keene Wednesday by the illness of her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Berry, who were for some time with Mrs. J. P. Liscom in West Brattleboro, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nolan of Revere, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Currier. Mrs. Nolan is a niece of Mr. Currier's.

Dr. E. J. Henkel returned to New York yesterday after a visit of several weeks here with his mother, Mrs. Charles Henkel.

Abbott Richmond has returned from a visit at Mrs. Amy Weedon's in Boston, and is working on E. N. Miller's farm in Keene.

W. H. Gerahy of Albany, N. Y., traveling salesman for the Dunham Brothers company, was in town at the head office Wednesday.

Mrs. Katherine Burchard has returned from Westminster, where she visited over Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. George G. Wright.

Mrs. Charles F. Bingham went yesterday to Schenectady, N. Y., where she will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Corser.

Mrs. Roselee Reichen went Wednesday to Springfield, Mass., where she will spend the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Edward Bassett.

Mrs. E. A. Flint, who has been visiting relatives in New York two weeks, is expected today at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. O. Abbott.

Mrs. J. B. Bolliger of Green street, who was severely burned last Saturday in her home by the overturning of a kettle of hot water, is gaining.

George L. Dunham of the Dunham Brothers Co. was a speaker at a meeting of the Vermont Retail Shoe Dealers' association in Barre Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tillson and Miss Freda Prince of Randolph and Mrs. Nims of Westmoreland were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Phillips.

Mrs. Maria Johnson, who had been a patient in the Memorial hospital over a year, has left there and gone to the home of Walter Cudworth in London derry.

Mrs. Henry R. Brown went yesterday to Lowell, N. Y., to be present at a reception given to her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Richardson, by Mr. Richardson's aunt.

Miss Marion Sherman of Williamsville, who had been working temporarily in the People's National bank, has finished work there and taken a position in the Holstein-Friesian office.

Mrs. Alice McDonough of Jacksonville is visiting in town with her sister, Mrs. Lillian Coleman of South Main street. Mr. McDonough has taken a position with the S. A. Smith Mfg. Co., and they plan to move here soon.

W. J. Hamlin, who recently returned from Eagle Pass, Texas, with Company I, V. N. G., has taken a position in the retail department of the Dunham Brothers company. He previously was employed in the wholesale department.

Mrs. Caroline Chase, who is in her 92d year and recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Memorial hospital, has left there and gone to the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. John E. Coleman. Mrs. Chase is improving each day.

Mrs. Eleanor Richardson will close her home in West Brattleboro Saturday and will be a guest at E. C. Crosby's several days before going to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joel Knapp in Dorchester, Mass. Mr. Crosby will accompany her to Dorchester next week.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Mrs. E. D. Whitney went to Springfield, Mass., Tuesday morning.

Glenn Russ and family have moved from 66 Central street to 5 Blakeslee street.

Mrs. Kittie Morrill Brown of Haverhill, Mass., is a guest of Miss Amy Hines.

Mrs. Maria Johnson of Springfield, Mass., spent Tuesday in town with relatives.

Joseph Cochran of New London, Conn., was a week-end visitor in town with friends.

Mrs. Elvira Loomis underwent an operation Tuesday morning in the Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Charles Guinzinger and two children went Monday to Pittsfield, Mass., to visit relatives.

Miss Mattie Metcalf returned to Newfane Tuesday, after spending several days in town.

Charles Keach, a Central Vermont engineer who has been ill three months, is back on his run.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shuman returned Monday from a visit with relatives in West Dover.

Mrs. Ora Craig, who spent the summer here, went Tuesday to New York to remain indefinitely.

Charles E. Davis of Vernon was a guest over Sunday of his daughter, Mrs. A. D. Reynolds.

Mrs. Eugene Ferriter is visiting her son, Florence Ferriter and Mrs. Ferriter, in Northampton.

Miss Mary E. Grady, who went Saturday to Springfield and Holyoke for a visit, returned Sunday.

Mr. O. D. Estabrook, who spent the summer at A. E. Thurber's, returned to Boston Tuesday morning.

Harry K. White of New York was in town Tuesday on business and was a guest of his mother, Mrs. P. K. White.

Mrs. Amy Moore of East Dover, who has been visiting her father, Barney Pratt, returned to her home Wednesday morning.

Miss Regina Henchy is ill in her home on Cedar street. Mrs. Reuben Brown is taking her place in Miller's candy store.

William Welcome returned Sunday to New Haven, Conn., after a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Welcome.

Mrs. Lucius Harris of West Townsend spent Sunday in town with Mr. Harris, who is employed here at the S. A. Smith factory.

Capt. A. H. Bronson of Hartford, Conn., who had been a guest of Maj. Linn D. Taylor several days, has returned to his home.

Mrs. E. W. Davis and niece, Miss Betty Kerr of New York, who had been guests of Major L. D. Taylor, returned to New York Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. McBride and son, Malcolm, who had been at the home of her father, Mr. Wyman, returned to Jersey City, N. J., Sunday.

J. P. Linton of Norwich, Conn., spent Tuesday in town with his sister, Miss Rene Linton, on his way to his home in Rutland to visit.

Charles Shattuck, who had spent a three-weeks' vacation in Brattleboro, Townshend and Springfield (Vt.), returned to New York Tuesday.

James O'Donnell, Jr., went Saturday to Springfield, Mass., where he visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Nolan. He returned Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Taylor have taken rooms at E. C. Crosby's. Rev. and Mrs. Thomas W. Owens have moved to Mr. Taylor's house on Westmoreland avenue.

Mrs. Marion Lansing and daughter, Emily, and Mrs. W. H. Minor left Tuesday by automobile for their home in Cleveland, Ohio, after having spent the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Freyenhagen and son Clinton, and Mrs. C. L. Piper and Miss Ashley spent Sunday in Walpole, N. H., with Mrs. Piper's sister, Mrs. George Pierce.

Mrs. Tinker of Dover, N. H., private stenographer to H. L. Olds, general manager of the Twin State Electric & Gas Co., came Tuesday and has taken a room at E. C. Crosby's.

Mrs. Catherine Coleman of Brattleboro, who has been ill for some time in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Martin of Holyoke, remains very ill, with a nurse in attendance.

George W. Baker of Shrewsbury called on Rev. E. S. Hewitt Saturday on a motor trip from Springfield, Mass. Baker went with Mr. Baker to Rutland for a week's visit among relatives.

George Holland, who went to Bellows Falls recently to take a temporary position in the office of the American Express Co., has returned to Brattleboro and taken his old position in the local office.

Fred S. Knight resumed work for a part of each day Tuesday for the Dunham Brothers company, after an absence of 15 weeks following an operation in the Memorial hospital for appendicitis.

Captain Thomas Rennie and his workers were in South Windham Sunday and held a revival meeting in the Baptist church. Captain Rennie attended a ministers' conference in Windham Tuesday.

Miss Katherine Baker, who visited over three weeks in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Maurice Doyle of Elliot street, and her brother, Edward A. Baker, who visited six days in town with relatives, returned Tuesday to their home in Cambridge, Mass.

Stoddard Bates, state highway commissioner, was in town Monday night and Tuesday morning. He came on matters of road business and to accept an invitation to attend a banquet at Keene, N. H., Tuesday of the highway patrolmen of the Keene district.

Frederick H. Sanford, who is a member of the Sons of the Revolution, was present Monday in New York at the 150th anniversary of St. Paul's chapel, at which time Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, rector of Trinity parish spoke. Delegations marched in a body to the church, Mr. Sanford being among the number.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Mrs. L. D. Mastin is spending a week or more in St. Johnsbury.

B. C. Baldwin and family moved this week from Washington to Canal street.

Miss Anna Rice has resumed work in R. C. Bacon's office, after a vacation of 10 days.

Clifford Ratte returned Sunday night from a few days' vacation spent in Boston.

Henry Robbins has taken a position with the Westinghouse Co. in Springfield, Mass.

Ray L. Mixer, who is employed in Northampton, Mass., spent Sunday in town with friends.

Fred Stetson of Post Mills is visiting in town a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Walter Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Derry will move this month from South Main street to Pearl street.

Mrs. A. H. Jaquith and family will move this week from 14 Clark avenue to 49 South Main street.

Mrs. E. F. Lindsey and Mrs. H. M. Bury returned Sunday from a stay of several days in Boston.

Mrs. William Foster of East Montpelier is visiting in the home of her brother, Dr. C. G. Wheeler.

Miss Clara Tarbox visited over Sunday at her home in West Dunbar, returning Monday morning.

Thomas Storms and family have moved from Park street to 106 Elliot street, in the Hertberg house.

Miss Harriet Barden and mother have moved from South Main street to the Bruce house on Green street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Carpenter returned home Saturday, after visiting two weeks with relatives in Marlboro.